Mission Statement

We the people of Old Mission Santa Inés, following the path of Jesus Christ, are making His vision a reality through love, unity, justice, joy and hope.

Nosotros el pueblo de la Misión Santa Inés, siguiendo el camino de Jesucristo, estamos realizando su vision por medio del amor, la unidad, la justicia, la alegria y la esperanza.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Before I formed you in your mother's womb, I knew you, the Lord said to the prophet Jeremiah. It's true for all of us. St. Francis of Assisi says: "Consider in what great excellence the Lord God has placed you, for He created and formed you to the image of His beloved Son according to the body and to His likeness according to the Spirit." Each human life is made in Jesus' image, and each life is a gift from the moment of conception, which is why we place such importance on respecting the life of those not yet born. Thousands are marching this weekend to witness to this: let us join them with our prayers and our acts of love and sacrifice. God bless you always!

NOTICES

Rite of Acceptance -RCIA

Today Sunday, January 26, at the 9:30 AM Mass, we will celebrate the Rite of Acceptance for two of our newest candidates: one seeking baptism (called catechumens) and one on her journey to become a full and active member of the Catholic Church. This is the first liturgical step in their journey where they are presented to the parish community to make their intention known and to receive a promise of prayerful support. Before Mass begins, they will knock at the entrance of the door of the Church. They will be called by name and will come forward to be signed with the Sign of the Cross. Please welcome Aaron Hurst and Jessica Contreras to our parish community and offer your prayerful support.

VIRTUS® Recertification "Keeping the Promise Alive"

Virtus Recertification will take place on Thursday, February 2, at 6:00 PM in St. Raphael's parish hall. Please call St. Raphael Church at 805/967-5641 to RSVP by Thursday, February 13.

SEEKING THE LIGHT

In today's readings we find ourselves being drawn more deeply into relationship with Jesus. We are getting to know more about him as we see how he struggles with the news of his cousin John's arrest. His first response is to withdraw, to leave Nazareth and go to Capernaum. There he is perhaps both consoled and challenged by the words of Isaiah that Matthew quotes: "the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, / on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death / light has arisen" (Matthew 4:16). Jesus contemplates his cousin's death, perhaps his own death, and he seeks the light. Maybe it is these words of Isaiah that move Jesus out of his withdrawal and into action. He begins to preach, teach, cure disease and illness, and proclaim the gospel of the kingdom.

Did you know? Evaluate relationships based on context. We may think we know enough about appropriate boundaries in relationships, but boundaries are complicated, even for adults. Children rely on adults to define what is appropriate and what isn't, in the context of the relationship. For example, some touches are "safe" or "unsafe" depending on who is in the relationship — a parent, a stranger, a teacher, etc. For more information, get a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Keeping in Touch with Important Distinctions" from <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

Antes de formarte en el seno de tu madre, ya te conocía, dijo el Señor al profeta Jeremías, y es la verdad para cada persona. Explica San Francisco: “Repara, oh hombre, en cuán grande excelencia te ha constituido el Señor Dios, pues te creó y formó a imagen de su querido Hijo según el cuerpo y a su semejanza según el espíritu.” Cada vida humana es un don de Dios y preciosa, aún en el seno. Por esto hay que respetar la vida de cada uno desde el momento de concepción. Algunos están en marcha este fin de semana en favor la dignidad de la vida, y nosotros debemos juntarnos con ellos por la oración y sacrificio. ¡Que Dios les cuide siempre!

Curso de Apologética.

El próximo mes de Febrero, iniciaremos con un curso de Apologética para aquellas personas que desean profundizar más en el conocimiento de la fe Católica basada en las Santas Escrituras. El costo del curso es de $25 más $10 del libro complementario. El facilitador del curso es el Diácono Ancelmo. Habrá más información para la próxima semana.

Fiesta de San Blas
Lunes 3 de febrero

Tendremos la bendición de las gargantas al final de todas las Misas el 1 y 2 de febrero, también el lunes 3 de febrero después de la Misa de 8:00 AM.

BUSCAMOS LA LUZ

En las lecturas de hoy nos encontramos deseando una relación más profunda con Jesús. Lo vamos conociendo un poco más al ver cómo le afecta la noticia del arresto de su primo Juan. Su primera reacción es retirarse, dejar Nazaret e irse a Cafarnaúm. Es allí donde quizás encuentra tanto consuelo como reto en las palabras de Isaías que Mateo cita: “El pueblo que caminaba en tinieblas vio una gran luz. Sobre los que vivían en tierra de sombras una luz resplandeció” (Mateo 4:16). Jesús contempla la muerte de su primo, y quizás su propia muerte, y busca la luz. Tal vez son estas palabras de Isaías las que sacan a Jesús de su retiro y lo lanzan a la acción, pues él comienza a predicar, enseñar, curar enfermedades y a proclamar el Evangelio del Reino.

¿SABÍA USTED? Evalúe las relaciones con base en el contexto. Podemos pensar que sabemos suficiente sobre los límites apropiados en las relaciones, pero los límites son complicados, aun para los adultos. Los niños dependen de los adultos para definir lo que es apropiado y lo que no es, en el contexto de las relaciones. Por ejemplo, algunas caricias son “seguras” o “inseguras”, dependiendo de quién haga las caricias, un padre de familia, un extraño, un profesor, etc. Para más información, obtenga una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® “Keeping in Touch with Important Distinctions” (Manteniéndose al tanto de distinciones importantes), en <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.
