Mission Statement

We the people of Old Mission Santa Inés, following the path of Jesus Christ, are making His vision a reality through love, unity, justice, joy and hope.

Nosotros el pueblo de la Misión Santa Inés, siguiendo el camino de Jesucristo, estamos realizando su visión por medio del amor, la unidad, la justicia, la alegría y la esperanza.

FROM OUR PASTOR

After this I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb. All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day remind us each year that as Christians we are part of something much bigger than we can imagine: not only the Church throughout the world, but throughout all the ages. We ask the help of the saints and pray for our departed loved ones: what better way to unite ourselves in the love of Jesus Christ.

May the Lord bless you and keep you always!

Fr. Bobby

Did you know? Teens and alcohol: COVID temptations. Families have been cooped up for months now during the COVID-19 pandemic, and studies have shown that many Americans are buying more beer and alcohol than usual to cope with related anxiety and stress. These same stresses may tempt teens and young adults to experiment with alcohol, especially if it is readily available. Talk to your children about the dangers of underage drinking, even if they plan to stay home. Model good behavior for your children, too; if you do drink alcohol, practice moderation and safe judgment. Consider locking your bar, or moving alcohol somewhere out of reach from your children. Vi luego una muchedumbre tan grande, que nadie podía contarla. Eran individuos de todas las naciones y razas, de todos los pueblos y lenguas. Todos estaban de pie, delante del trono y del Cordero. Por las fiestas de Todos los Santos y el Día de los Muertos la iglesia nos recuerda que somos parte del cuerpo de Cristo, una realidad más grande de lo que podemos imaginar. Estamos conectados con los santos, quienes rezan por nosotros, y con los difuntos, por quienes rezamos. ¡Qué bonito ser parte del Cuerpo de Cristo! ¡Que Dios les bendiga y les guarde!

¿SABÍA USTED? Adolescentes y alcohol: tentaciones COVID. Las familias han estado encerradas por meses durante la pandemia de COVID-19, y los estudios han demostrado que muchos estadounidenses están comprando más cerveza y alcohol de lo habitual para hacer frente a la ansiedad y el estrés relacionados con el encierro. Estas mismas tensiones pueden tentar a los adolescentes y adultos jóvenes a experimentar con el alcohol, especialmente si está fácilmente disponible. Hable con sus hijos sobre los peligros del consumo de alcohol por menores de edad, aunque ellos tengan planes de quedarse en casa. Modele también el buen comportamiento de sus hijos; si bebe alcohol, practique la moderación y el juicio prudente. Considere cerrar el bar con llave o colocar el alcohol en algún lugar fuera del alcance de sus hijos. Para obtener más información, visite <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

November

All Souls

OUR HOPE AND GOD'S PROMISE

The Church uses these waning November days and darker skies as the season to remind us of the Last Things. Today's feast, the Solemnity of All Saints, is the centerpiece of three days that point to doctrines we proclaim each time we say the Apostles Creed: "We believe in the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting." And while the days and our hearts may be dark, the readings today are bright with the light of faith. John's vision in the book of Revelation reveals dazzling angels and white-robed saints gathered in triumph around the throne of God. In the responsorial psalm we sing our longing to see God's face, and in the second reading John writes that we are God's children and will, in fact, see God "as he is" (1 John 3:2). This is our hope. This is God's promise. Today we celebrate the triumph of those who already gaze on the face of God. Tomorrow we cry out for mercy with those in purgatory, who, like us on earth, still long to see God's face.
