Mission Statement

We the people of Old Mission Santa Inés, following the path of Jesus Christ, are making His vision a reality through love, unity, justice, joy and hope.

Nosotros el pueblo de la Misión Santa Inés, siguiendo el camino de Jesucristo, estamos realizando su visión por medio del amor, la unidad, la justicia, la alegría y la esperanza.

FROM OUR PASTOR

“Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour,”

Jesus says clearly, so why do we concentrate on the day and the hour? We shouldn't worry about when the end of the world will be, because that's in God's hands. Rather, let us begin each day as if God had just created the world and come to each night thanking Him for such a gift. In between let us live the love to which Jesus calls us.

God bless and keep you!

Fr. Bobby

Did you know? How to help your children with anxiety.

We're living in uncertain times, and our anxiety about what is happening today, and will happen in the future, can trickle down to our children, making them anxious, too. This anxiety may manifest in new fears, such that a child becomes reluctant to try new things, or it may exacerbate existing fears, such that a child becomes even more anxious than before. Parents can help their children with anxiety by practicing techniques for deep breathing, ensuring regular exercise and talking honestly about feelings and concerns. For more tips, request a copy of the VIRTUS article "Techniques for Calming Anxiety for Youth" at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

Our parish now offers Online Giving, a web-based electronic contribution application. We are providing this service so that you have the option to manage your contributions either online or with your offering envelopes. This service is safe and secure. And it is convenient for you and for our parish staff. Sign up for Online Giving by visiting our parish website at: <https://osvhub.com/mission-santa-ines/funds> and selecting the Online Giving link.

“Estén pues, preparados, porque no saben ni el día ni la hora” A pesar de estas palabras claras de Jesús, siempre buscamos el día y la hora. Lo más importante es dejar el fin del mundo en las manos del Señor. Lo esencial es vivir cada día que nuestro Creador nos da como un regalo, empezando y terminando con acción de gracias. Estar preparados es vivir cada día la caridad, el Amor que nos muestra Jesucristo.

¡Qué Dios les cuide!

¿SABÍA USTED? ¿Cómo ayudar a sus hijos que sufren ansiedad? Estamos viviendo en tiempo de incertidumbre, y nuestra ansiedad sobre lo que ocurre hoy y lo que pasará en el futuro, puede ser transmitida a nuestros hijos, poniéndolos ansiosos también. Esta ansiedad puede manifestarse en nuevos miedos, los cuales pueden llevar a que los niños se nieguen a probar cosas nuevas, o puede agravar sus miedos existentes, poniéndolos más ansiosos que antes. Los padres de familia pueden ayudar a sus hijos con la ansiedad, practicando técnicas de respiración profunda, implementando el ejercicio regularmente y hablando honestamente con ellos sobre sus sentimientos y preocupaciones. Para más consejos, solicite una copia del artículo de VIRTUS, “Techniques for Calming Anxiety for Youth” (Técnicas para calmar la ansiedad en los jóvenes) en <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

All Souls

EXPECTING THE UNEXPECTED

If it ever crossed your mind that Jesus was somewhat lacking in a sense of humor, today's Gospel should belie any such notion. Jesus' story of the five wise and five foolish bridesmaids is downright hilarious. The circumstances of the story were surely familiar to Jesus' listeners, just as they are—if we think about it—to us. Weddings never, ever start on time. There's always a delay. Buttons pop off at the last minute. Flowers wilt. Cars full of wedding guests get caught in traffic. Soloists contract laryngitis. Brides or grooms or priests show up late! So the only reasonable way to approach a wedding is with a sense of humor, to realize that something probably will go awry, and, when that happens, to smile about it.

Jesus tells this funny story to encourage us to be watchful, yes; to be ready, yes. But he doesn't tell it to make us dour and somber. The heavy-hearted tremble, waver, lose sight of their place and purpose, and fall asleep. The lighthearted know that the unexpected will happen—is bound to happen—so they are awake in their place and ready in their purpose when it comes.
