November 28 & 29, 2020

First Sunday of Advent

(Isaiah 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7; 1 Corinthians 1:3-9; Mark 13:33-37)

Mission Statement

We the people of Old Mission Santa Inés, following the path of Jesus Christ, are making His vision a reality through love, unity, justice, joy and hope.

Nosotros el pueblo de la Misión Santa Inés, siguiendo el camino de Jesucristo, estamos realizando su visión por medio del amor, la unidad, la justicia, la alegría y la esperanza.

FROM OUR PASTOR

God is faithful, and by him you were called to fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Once more we are in the time of Advent, and maybe this year more than usual we are called to renew our trust in the faithfulness of God and our call to act as brothers and sisters, members of the Body of Christ. As we continue to work under the pandemic protocols to keep one another safe, let us ask the Holy Spirit, who filled Mary our mother with grace, to open our hearts to God's presence in our midst, right now.

During Advent we will not have a penance service as usual, but we will add times when you can come for confession, and you can also call and make an appointment to celebrate this important sacrament which helps us focus on the coming of our Savior. May God bless and keep you always!

Fr. Bobby

MARK'S JESUS

Mark's Gospel is the shortest and tersest of all four. The discourses of Jesus tend to be terser as well. Mark's portrayal of Jesus has none of the poetry of the Sermon on the Mount or the Sermon on the Plain as in Matthew or Luke, nor the extensive, reflective "I Am" discourses as in John. Mark's Jesus "cuts to the chase," we would say today. This is reflected quite well in today's passage.

It is no accident that the dialogue of Jesus at this point in the Gospel according to Mark—the concluding words about the end of the world—immediately before his passion, is riddled with exclamation points and an overall sense of urgency.

We would do well to re-tool our own way of living this Advent, for we live in a world urgently in need of hearing the message of Jesus proclaimed. It's time for us to "wake up!" and get out into the world to do it.

Did you know? The devastating effects of verbal abuse. A study by Florida State University found that children who were verbally abused are more likely to experience depression and anxiety. They are also twice as likely to suffer with mood and anxiety disorders throughout their lifetime. Children who suffer such abuse can go on to repeat the same parenting styles they experienced thereby continuing the cycle of abuse. Pay attention to the language you and others use with your children. Breaking the chain of negative behaviors starts with positive, healthy parent-child relationships. *Dios es quien los ha llamado a la unión con su Hijo Jesucristo, y Dios es fiel. Este domingo entramos en el tiempo de adviento, y debemos renovar nuestro compromiso con el Señor, quien es fiel. Por nuestra unión con Jesucristo debemos caminar en paciencia y caridad, como sus hermanos y hermanas. Aunque todavía tenemos que cuidarnos y seguir las reglas de la pandemia, creemos que el Espíritu Santo puede abrir nuestros corazones, para que podamos decir este año con Maria: *Hágase en nosotros según tu Palabra, Señor.

Este adviento no habrá un servicio de penitencia, pero vamos a tener más oportunidades para confesar, y siempre se puede hacer una cita con uno de los padres para celebrar este sacramento importante. ¡Que Dios les cuide siempre!

¿SABÍA USTED? Los efectos devastadores del abuso verbal. Un estudio de la Universidad Estatal de la Florida encontró que los niños que fueron abusados verbalmente tienden a experimentar más depresión y ansiedad. Además, son más propensos a sufrir desórdenes de temperamento y ansiedad a lo largo de su vida. Los niños que sufren de abuso pueden repetir los mismos estilos de paternidad que ellos experimentaron, continuando con el mismo ciclo de abuso. Preste atención al lenguaje que usted y otros usan con sus hijos. Romper la cadena de conductas negativas comienza con relaciones padres-hijos positivas y saludables.
