FROM OUR PASTOR

"I'm not hurting anyone. I just minding my own business." In today's world, that's not bad. As Christians, we have a higher standard to meet. As Jesus tells us, the life of faith demands that we love God and neighbor. Not just any definition of love will do. We must love as Jesus teaches. Amos the prophet foretells the punishment of those who indulge in luxury at the expense of charity to their neighbor. Our psalm praises the Lord who comes to save-but was never indifferent to human suffering. St. Paul calls us to fight to imitate the example of Jesus-perfect and Holy, but also patient, loving. and kind. The parable of the rich man and Lazarus shows us that a life truly rich is one rich in charity. Bible Bonus: Look up Proverbs 30:7-9 as a great summary of Sunday's readings.

Fr. Michael Ronayne

Parents helping parents

DID YOU KNOW? Some parents seem to struggle with, or just do not understand the importance of being on time for school or for pick-up at the end of a team practice. Children and other parents notice persistent tardiness and concerns about possible neglect may arise. In today's climate, a well-meaning parent who steps in to assist with offers to drop-off or pick-up another child may, even under the best of circumstances, become suspect for showing "too much" interest in a child who is not theirs. It is important to find ways to engage parents on such important responsibilities early on. One way to start the process is by inviting them to come together to talk about issues and to brainstorm policies and solutions. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Parents who don't quite 'get it,'" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

DE NUESTRO PARROCO

"No estoy lastimando a nadie; solo me ocupo de mis asuntos". En el mundo de hoy, eso no está mal. Como cristianos, tenemos un estándar más alto que cumplir. Como Jesús nos dice, la vida de fe exige que amemos a Dios y al prójimo. No cualquier definición de amor servirá. Debemos amar como Jesús enseña. Amós, el profeta, predice el castigo de aquellos que se entregan al lujo a expensas de la caridad hacia su prójimo. Nuestro salmo alaba al Señor que viene a salvar, pero nunca fue indiferente al sufrimiento humano. San Pablo nos llama a luchar para imitar el ejemplo de Jesús perfecto y santo, pero también paciente, amoroso y amable. La parábola del hombre rico y Lázaro nos muestra que una vida verdaderamente rica es una vida rica en caridad. Un bono bíblico: Busque Proverbios 30: 7-9 como un gran resumen de las lecturas del domingo.

Padre Miguel R.

SABIA USTED? Algunos padres de familia parecen tener dificultades, o simplemente no entienden del todo la importancia de llegar a tiempo a la escuela o de recoger a sus hijos al final de una práctica deportiva. Los niños y otros padres de familia notan las tardanzas persistentes y pueden surgir preocupaciones sobre posible negligencia. Dado el ambiente social en la actualidad, un padre de familia bien intencionado que trate de ayudar con ofrecimientos de dejar o recoger a otro niño puede, incluso en las mejores circunstancias, convertirse en sospechoso por mostrar "demasiado" interés en un niño que no es su hijo. Es importante encontrar formas de involucrar a los padres de familia en estas responsabilidades importantes desde el principio. Una forma de iniciar el proceso es invitándolos a reunirse para hablar sobre posibles problemas y hacer una lluvia de ideas sobre directivas y soluciones. Para obtener más información, lea el artículo en inglés de VIRTUS® "Parents who don't quite 'get it,'" (Padres que no lo entienden del todo) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
