Mission Statement

We the people of Old Mission Santa Inés, following the path of Jesus Christ, are making His vision a reality through love, unity, justice, joy and hope.

Nosotros el pueblo de la Misión Santa Inés, siguiendo el camino de Jesucristo, estamos realizando su visión por medio del amor, la unidad, la justicia, la alegría y la esperanza.

FROM OUR PASTOR

All discipleship is “Walking by the Lord in a sea of troubled waters”, in the light of the gospel episode in Matthew 14. 22-33. The episode presents the disciples sailing in a boat, tossed about by strong winds. Jesus comes to them walking over the waters. But the disciples, be it due to tension or fear or preoccupation or lack of clear sight, do not recognize him. Jesus assures them that it is he. Peter, as usual enthusiastic and impulsive, wishes to try the same “wonder-feat” of Jesus, and so with Jesus’ encouragement and power, begins to walk in the waters.

What happens when the focus is not on Jesus, and what happens when the focus is on Jesus. If Peter’s focus was on Jesus, he could walk amidst the waters, walk against the opposing winds, walk toward Jesus steadily, firmly, and serenely, reach him, be in his presence, experience the calm, and worship him in surrender. The waters do not frighten him, the winds do not hinder him or overpower him. He is able to walk ahead, with stability, solidity and serenity. He can enjoy his presence and get re-confirmed in his faith.

The scene changes when the focus is shifted away from Jesus. Fear grips, confidence shakes, courage drops, faith wavers, feet stumble, and begins to sink.

Our life is like the boat, sailing amidst a sea of opposing winds and unfavorable situations, which makes the sail difficult and frightened. It is in such moments; the sight and the call of Jesus may encourage us like Peter to continue and persevere walking over the troubled waters for a while. Let’s be aware of the challenges that beset our journey and be focused on the Lord. We must continue walking and sailing.

Fr. Michael R.
