Mission Statement

We the people of Old Mission Santa Inés, following the path of Jesus Christ, are making His vision a reality through love, unity, justice, joy, and hope.

Nosotros el pueblo de la Misión Santa Inés, siguiendo el camino de Jesucristo, estamos realizando su visión por medio del amor, la unidad, la justicia, la alegría y la esperanza.

FROM OUR PASTOR

My father came from a poor background. He then married and had four children one after another. He dreamed about the day when he could afford a new car. Finally, years later, he bought a new Ford. He was thrilled for few days. Then he began to agonize over every scratch, every pothole, every ding to his new car. Eventually, a couple ran a stop sign and totaled Dad's new Ford. Dad used the accident to show us kids what he learned: Material things can be pretty and useful. They can also disappear in an instant. So, they should not be the focus of our lives. Our readings today have a similar message. We do need certain things, and they can be a blessing. We should use good things to bless others. However, only the Lord should occupy center stage in our lives. In second place are the people God has placed around us. Seek what is above says St. Paul. Focus on the higher things. The things of this world and disordered impulses must not govern our lives. We can't take "stuff" with us. Only our good works of love and faith bear lasting fruit. What will we leave behind when God calls us from this world?

DID YOU KNOW? - Who do children talk to about abuse?

Studies show that when children know that adults are willing to believe them, and advocate for them, children are more willing to come to adults with their problems. This is why other safe adults, like teachers and youth ministry volunteers, are essential to child protection. If a child discloses abuse, it is critical for a safe adult to provide a listening ear and help when needed, including reporting to the right people and authorities. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article “Disclosures Part 1: Why are Disclosures Important?” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Mi papa venia de una familia humilde, Luego, despues de casarse, tuvo 4 hijos, uno tras otro. Mientras, el siempre tenia ganas de comprar un carro nuevo. Por fin llego el dia y compro un Ford nuevo. Al principio, disfrutaba su carro bonito. Poco despues, empezo a sufrir con cada bache, cada rasgano, cada trocito de asfalto que pegaba a su carro nuevo. Despues, una pareja se salto una senal y destrozó el Ford nuevo. Luego, papa hablo con nosotros y dijo: Miren, las cosas de este mundo pueden ser bonitas y utiles. Tambien, fijense que las cosas pueden desaparecer en un instante. No deberian ocupar el centro de nuestras vidas. Asi dicen las lecturas del hoy. Cosas de este mundo pueden ser bendiciones para nosotros y los demas si las usamos como Dios quiere. Si no, cosas de este mundo pueden ser distracciones o algo peor. No duran y no las podemos llevar con nosotros despues de morir. Solo Dios debe ser el centro de la vida. Solo obras de fe y caridad van a durar y producir frutos buenos para todos. Dice San Pablo, busquen las cosas de arriba. Pongan sus corazones en en los bienes del cielo. Estamos solamente acumulando cosas en este mundo-o invirtiendo en las cosas de Dios? Que herencia dejare para mi familia?

¿SABÍAS? - ¿Con quién hablan los niños sobre el abuso?

Los estudios demuestran que cuando los niños saben que los adultos están dispuestos a creerlos y defenderlos, se sienten más dispuestos a compartir con ellos sus problemas. Por lo tanto, otros adultos de confianza, como los profesores y los voluntarios de la pastoral juvenil, son esenciales para la protección de los niños. Si un niño revela un abuso, es fundamental que un adulto de confianza le escucha y le ayuda cuando sea necesario, incluyendo la denuncia ante las personas y autoridades apropiadas. Para saber más lee el artículo de VIRTUS® “¿Por qué es importante la denuncia del abuso” (Disclosures Part 1: Why are Disclosures Important?) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
