FROM OUR PASTOR

If Christianity became illegal, could persecutors find enough evidence to convict us? From time to time, different Christian/Catholic preachers have posed the question. The first reading asks if we observe the important feasts of our Church year. Faith is something that happens at Church on Sundays/Feast days. Faith is also something we need to live out each day, at home & with our families. God sometimes invites us, as He did with Abraham and Sarah, to make major changes & sacrifices in our lives. Could we be convicted of moving to a different community, of changing jobs, or encouraging a son or daughter to enter religious life or seminary because of our faith? Faith calls us to act, speak and pray as Christians at school, in the workplace, marketplace, on public streets, etc. Are there areas of our lives or places where we forget about charity & faith? Jesus calls us to be vigilant, to live out our faith daily—we never know who is watching or listening. Various persecutors spied on the first Christians. They quickly accumulated enough evidence to convict & condemn them. If someone followed us during an average week, what evidence would they find?

Fr. Mike Ronayne

DID YOU KNOW? - Far-reaching effects of child abuse

Children who suffer from sexual abuse run a greater risk of negative associated outcomes, not only with their mental health, but also suicidal tendencies, potential future abuse, more cognitive deficits, or lower educational interests and efforts. Abused children also are at higher risk for eating disorders, obesity, early onset of puberty, or chronic health issues. Ultimately, abuse has far-reaching consequences beyond childhood for many victims, and it is critical to act quickly to protect potential victims.

It's important to remember that any intervention or supportive response from a safe adult can reduce the risk of many or all negative outcomes. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Disclosures Part 1: Why are Disclosures Important?"

DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Si el Cristianismo se vuelve ilegal, hay suficiente evidencia en nuestras vidas para condenarnos? Algunos predicadores han plantado la pregunta. La primera lectura nos pregunta si celebramos los días festivos religiosos y Domingos. Celebraciones en las iglesias son importantes, pero también lo que estamos haciendo en nuestros hogares con nuestras familias día tras día. A veces, Dios nos pide, como lo hizo con Abraham y Sarah, que hagamos grandes cambios o sacrificios. Estamos dispuestos de cambiar casas, or trabajo, o escuelas, si Dios nos pide? Que diríamos si nuestro hijo o hija quisiera entrar en la vida religiosa? La Fe nos llama a actuar, hablar, y orar como Cristianos no solo en el templo, pero también en las escuelas, en público, en el trabajo, en el calle, etc. Hay lugares o áreas en nuestras vidas donde falta piedad o caridad? Jesus dice que la fe es crucial para nosotros, pero también para todos alrededor. Por eso, tenemos que ejercitarse nuestra fe cada día. Varios perseguidores espiaron a los primeros Cristianos. Acumularon pruebas suficientes para acusarlos y condenarlos. Si alguien nos espiara, que vería?

¿SABÍAS? - Efectos al largo plazo del maltrato a los menores

Los niños que sufren abusos sexuales corren un mayor riesgo de sufrir consecuencias negativas, no solo en su salud mental, sino también en forma de tendencias suicidas, posibles abusos futuros, más déficits cognitivos o menor interés y esfuerzo en los estudios. Los niños maltratados también corren un mayor riesgo de sufrir trastornos alimentarios, obesidad, pubertad precoz o problemas de salud crónicos. Es importante recordar que cualquier intervención o respuesta de apoyo por parte de un adulto de confianza puede reducir el riesgo de muchos o todos los resultados negativos. Para saber más lee el artículo de

VIRTUS® “¿Por qué es importante la denuncia del abuso” (Disclosures Part 1: Why are Disclosures Important) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
