Mission Statement

We the people of Old Mission Santa Inés, following the path of Jesus Christ, are making His vision a reality through love, unity, justice, joy, and hope.

Nosotros el pueblo de la Misión Santa Inés, siguiendo el camino de Jesucristo, estamos realizando su visión por medio del amor, la unidad, la justicia, la alegría y la esperanza.

FROM OUR PASTOR

Jesus is a Good Shepherd. He feeds the multitudes who hunger for His word and sends His disciples off to rest. He too is exhausted, but He sacrifices himself to feed and care for others. Our world invites us to sacrifice others to meet our wants and needs. Jesus tells us that we are joined to Him by baptism, prayer, sacraments, the Word, the Church, etc. He sacrifices Himself for us. He also sends us to serve and sacrifice for others. We all have people who look at us, listen to us, look up to us, etc. Maybe they are children, siblings, neighbors, coworkers, spouses, etc. They need our prayers, good counsel, and good example. The need us to put our wants to one side for them. If we refuse to be good shepherds, the consequences are grave. Let us be good members of the Jesus' flock, and good shepherds of those who follow after us.

Fr. Mike Ronayne

DID YOU KNOW? - Safe environment tips

Everyone that works and interacts with children should have clear boundaries in place. This can include rules like: staying in public view and avoiding isolated one-on-one situations with children and ensuring that two or more adults are always paired together to work with children, as well as other guidelines on appropriate physical contact. For the Archdiocese of Los Angeles's guidelines on how to interact with minors at our parishes, schools and ministries please visit <https://lacatholics.org/policies-and-procedures/>, and for more tips read the VIRTUS® article "When Boundaries Abound, Our Lives Can Flourish" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Jesús es el Buen Pastor. Alimenta a las multitudes hambrientas de su palabra y envía a sus discípulos a descansar. Él también está exhausto, pero se sacrifica para alimentar y cuidar a los demás. Nuestro mundo nos invita a sacrificar a otros para satisfacer nuestras necesidades. Jesús nos dice que estamos unidos a él por el bautismo, la oración, los sacramentos, la Palabra, la Iglesia, etc. Se sacrifica por nosotros. También nos envía a servir y sacrificarnos por los demás. Todos tenemos personas que nos miran, nos escuchan, nos admiran, etc. Quizás sean hijos, hermanos, vecinos, compañeros de trabajo, cónyuges, etc. Necesitan nuestras oraciones, buenos consejos y buen ejemplo. Necesitan que dejemos de lado nuestras necesidades por ellos. Si nos negamos a ser buenos pastores, las consecuencias son graves. Seamos buenos miembros del rebaño de Jesús y buenos pastores de quienes nos siguen.

Padre Miguel Ronayne

¿SABÍAS? - Consejos para mantener un ambiente seguro

Todas las personas que trabajan e interactúan con niños deben establecer límites claros. Esto puede incluir normas como: permanecer a la vista del público y evitar situaciones aisladas con los niños, y asegurarse de que siempre haya dos o más adultos juntos para trabajar con los niños, así como otras directrices sobre el contacto físico apropiado. Para las directrices de la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles sobre cómo interactuar con los menores en nuestras parroquias, escuelas y ministerios, visite <https://lacatholics.org/policies-and-procedures/> y para saber más sobre cómo establecer y mantener límites, lea el artículo en VIRTUS® “Cuando abundan los límites, nuestras vidas pueden florecer” (When Boundaries Abound, Our Lives Can Flourish) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
