FROM OUR PASTOR

Holy Week is not only the remembrance of events in the life of Jesus; it is the revelation of the pattern of every human life. The Human Journey Transfigured in Christ.

On Palm Sunday, we see a truth about the human condition: we long for recognition and meaning. Like the crowds crying “Hosanna,” we experience moments when life seems full, when we are seen and celebrated. Yet, beneath this, there is always a deeper call. Jesus enters Jerusalem knowing that glory is fleeting. The human heart, if it is honest, senses that applause cannot fulfill its deepest longing. We are made not for passing praise, but for a greater destiny.

On Holy Thursday, we encounter another dimension of our existence: the need to love and to be in communion. In the Eucharist, Jesus transforms the ordinary elements of bread and wine into a lasting presence—suggesting that human life itself finds meaning when it becomes a gift. In the washing of the feet, He reveals that true greatness lies not in being served, but in serving. Here we see that the fulfillment of our humanity is not in possessing, but in self-giving.

On Good Friday, we face the most difficult truth: love is vulnerable. To love deeply is to risk rejection, misunderstanding, and suffering. Every human life, at some point, encounters the cross—moments when goodness seems defeated, when sacrifice appears meaningless. The Cross unveils the paradox at the heart of existence: that what appears as loss can become the place of deepest meaning.

Yet, this is not the end.

Easter is not simply an event; it is the ultimate horizon of human existence. It proclaims that death does not have the final word, that love is not in vain, and that the deepest movements of the human heart—toward truth, goodness, and communion—are not illusions. In the Resurrection, what is fragile is made eternal.

Thus, Holy Week reveals that our lives are not random or fragmented experiences. They follow a hidden path: from longing to self-gift, to suffering, and finally to transformation. Let us walk this journey consciously with Christ.

In Christ, Fr. Lijoy Jose, OFM Cap. Pastor

DID YOU KNOW? - Encourage children to practice personal boundary safety rules

All children should know their personal boundaries and know that they have a right to be safe in their own bodies. Encourage children to speak up and say "no" when they feel scared, uncomfortable, or confused. They should know to get away from an unsafe situation as quickly as possible, and to tell a safe adult what happened. When a child says they don't want to show affection, an adult should prioritize that child's boundary. LECTURAS DE HOY

Isaías 50, 4-7 / Salmo 21

Filipenses 2, 6-11 / Mateo 26, 14–27, 66

DE NUESTRO PARROCO

La Semana Santa: El camino humano transfigurado en Cristo
La Semana Santa no es solamente el recuerdo de los acontecimientos en la vida de Jesús; es la revelación del modelo de toda vida humana.

En el Domingo de Ramos, vemos una verdad sobre la condición humana: anhelamos reconocimiento y sentido. Como las multitudes que gritan “¡Hosanna!”, experimentamos momentos en los que la vida parece plena, cuando somos vistos y celebrados. Sin embargo, por debajo de todo esto, siempre hay una llamada más profunda. Jesús entra en Jerusalén sabiendo que la gloria es pasajera. El corazón humano, si es sincero, percibe que el aplauso no puede satisfacer su anhelo más profundo. No hemos sido creados para una alabanza pasajera, sino para un destino mayor.

En el Jueves Santo, encontramos otra dimensión de nuestra existencia: la necesidad de amar y de vivir en comunión. En la Eucaristía, Jesús transforma los elementos ordinarios del pan y del vino en una presencia duradera, sugiriendo que la vida humana encuentra su sentido cuando se convierte en don. En el lavatorio de los pies, Él revela que la verdadera grandeza no está en ser servido, sino en servir. Aquí descubrimos que la plenitud de nuestra humanidad no está en poseer, sino en entregarnos.

En el Viernes Santo, nos enfrentamos a la verdad más difícil: el amor es vulnerable. Amar profundamente implica arriesgarse al rechazo, a la incomprensión y al sufrimiento. Toda vida humana, en algún momento, encuentra la cruz: momentos en los que el bien parece derrotado y el sacrificio parece sin sentido. La Cruz revela la paradoja en el corazón de la existencia: que lo que parece pérdida puede convertirse en el lugar del sentido más profundo.

Sin embargo, este no es el final.

La Pascua no es simplemente un acontecimiento; es el horizonte último de la existencia humana. Proclama que la muerte no tiene la última palabra, que el amor no es en vano, y que los movimientos más profundos del corazón humano—hacia la verdad, el bien y la comunión—no son ilusiones. En la Resurrección, lo que es frágil se hace eterno.

Así, la Semana Santa revela que nuestras vidas no son experiencias al azar ni fragmentadas. Siguen un camino oculto: del anhelo al don de sí, del sufrimiento a la transformación. Caminemos este camino conscientemente con Cristo.

En Cristo,
P. Lijoy Jose, OFM Cap.
Párroco

¿SABÍAS? - Anime a los niños a practicar las normas de seguridad sobre los límites

Todos los niños deben conocer sus límites personales y saber que tienen derecho a sentirse seguros en su propio cuerpo. Anime a los niños a expresarse y decir “no” cuando se sientan asustados, incómodos o confundidos. Deben saber que deben alejarse de una situación peligrosa lo antes posible y contarle a un adulto de confianza lo que ha sucedido. Cuando un niño dice que no quiere mostrar afecto, un adulto debe dar prioridad a los límites de ese niño.
