March 29th & 30th, 2025

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Mission Statement

We the people of Old Mission Santa Inés, following the path of Jesus Christ, are making His vision a reality through love, unity, justice, joy, and hope.

Nosotros el pueblo de la Misión Santa Inés, siguiendo el camino de Jesucristo, estamos realizando su visión por medio del amor, la unidad, la justicia, la alegría y la esperanza.

FROM OUR PASTOR

The Bible is a treasury of wisdom-not just a list of "Do's" & "Don'ts". We meditate on the figures in Scripture. We try to imitate their good example and avoid their errors. The three examples in the Gospel this weekend are the prodigal son, the prodigal father, and the older son/brother. The prodigal son is prodigiously disrespectful to his father, family and faith. He prodigiously, extravagantly, wastes his inheritance. Then he comes to his senses and repents. The father responds with prodigious, lavish, mercy, forgiveness, & generosity. The older son/brother is somewhat prodigious in terms of unforgiveness, ingratitude, & resentment. Are we generous with our treasures, talents & time-the inheritance God gives us? Are we generous in terms of gratitude' forgiveness and mercy? We can all be like the first son in his errors, but are we willing to repent too? Or are we hard hearted like the older son? God grant us grace us to be prodigal children of God in the best sense-like our Heavenly Father and His Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Fr. Michael Ronayne

DID YOU KNOW? - Teaching your children boundaries

Communities thrive with appropriate boundaries in place. Without them, everyone is left vulnerable, especially children, in an "anything goes" culture. As safe adults, we can empower children by defining and strengthening our own boundaries. Children learn by watching the adults around them. Seeing us make and hold boundaries will teach them this incredibly important skill. To learn more about setting and upholding boundaries, read the VIRTUS® article "When Boundaries Abound, Our Lives Can Flourish" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

DE NUESTRO PARROCO

La Biblia es un tesoro de sabiduría-no solamente una lista de reglas. La Palabra nos invita a meditar en las figuras bíblicas para imitar sus virtudes y evitar sus errores. Hay tres ejemplos en el Evangelio de este Domingo.: el hijo prodigo, el padre prodigo, y el otro hijo. Prodigio puede decir extravagante o excesivo y derrochador. El hijo prodigo es extravagante en su falta de respeto para su papa, familia y fe. También, es muy derrochador y excesivo en el uso de su herencia. Pero, luego se arrepiente. El papa es extravagante en su misericordia, su perdón, y su bondad. El otro hijo es un poquito excesivo en su falta de perdón y ingratitud. Y nosotros? Hay excesos en nuestro uso de las bendiciones de Dios? Hay excesos de ingratitud, o una falta de respeto y misericordia en nuestras vidas? Necesitamos arrepentirnos como el primer hijo? Que Dios nos conceda la gracia de imitar nuestro Dios Padre y su Hijo nuestro Señor y ser Cristianos prodigos en el sentido mejor.

Padre Miguel Ronayne

¿SABÍAS? - Enseñe límites personales a sus hijos

Las comunidades prosperan cuando hay límites adecuados. Sin ellos, todos somos vulnerables, especialmente los niños, en una cultura de “todo vale”. Como adultos de confianza, podemos empoderar a los niños defendiendo y reforzando sus límites personales. Los niños aprenden por observar a los adultos que les rodean. Verlos poner y mantener límites personales les enseñan esta habilidad increíblemente importante. Para saber más sobre de cómo establecer y mantener límites, lea el artículo en VIRTUS® “Cuando abundan los límites, nuestras vidas pueden florecer” en lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
