TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Mission Statement

We the people of Old Mission Santa Inés, following the path of Jesus Christ, are making His vision a reality through love, unity, justice, joy, and hope.

Nosotros el pueblo de la Misión Santa Inés, siguiendo el camino de Jesucristo, estamos realizando su visión por medio del amor, la unidad, la justicia, la alegría y la esperanza.

FROM OUR PASTOR

As the US Bishops have said, God means for love to last. Christian love is the heart of every vocation. Love is not just a lovely feeling or passion. It means to will the best for the other, to do the best we can for others. A time limit cannot be imposed on love-St. Paul and St John tells us that love comes from God who is without limits and not subject to time. God transfuses His love into us through the (Blessed) Sacraments, the Word, prayer, adoration, fellowship, etc. He calls us to share His love in each of our vocations. Marriage is the vocation to which most people are called. He tells us in His Word that Christian marriage is made to last-just like religious life and clerical service. As our wisest brothers agree, marriage is one powerful way that God communicates to our poor world what true love actually is. For that reason, no matter what our vocation, we need to stay close to God or we will lack the strength and will to be God's loving presence in the world.

Fr. Michael R.

DID YOU KNOW? - Why are personal boundaries important?

Personal boundaries are critical for every relationship and interaction we have in ministry or volunteer work. We set boundaries to protect ourselves and the people with whom we are interacting. As an employee or volunteer in ministry, you have an inherent, perceived power over those you serve. Because of this position of authority and power, the employee and volunteer's priority should be the best interest of the person to whom they are ministering. To learn more about setting appropriate boundaries, read the VIRTUS® article "Ministerial Boundaries, Power and Authority" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Dios quiere que el amor dure, dicen nuestros obispos. Dios es amor. Amor es lo esencial in todas las vocaciones. Amor no es solamente un sentimiento o pasion. Amor quiere hacer lo mejor para el otro. El amor no debe de acabar. Amor viene de Dios. Dios es Amor. El es eterno y sin limites. El quiere compartir su amor con nosotros por medio de los Sacramentos, la Palabra, oracion, adoration, etc. Luego, nos invita a compartir su amor en cada vocacion-por toda la vida. La vida religiosa, vida sacerdotal, y vida matrimonial son vocacions de vida y amor por toda la vida. El dia de hoy, matrimonio cristiano es un modelo poderoso para el mundo de la vida de amor y servicio. Por eso, si somos llamados al matrimonio, o otra vocacion, tenemos que injertarnos fuertemente en Dios. Si no, ni podemos conocer or vivir el amor verdadero.

¿SABÍAS? - ¿Por qué son importantes los límites personales?

Los límites personales son fundamentales para cada relación e interacción que tenemos en el ministerio o el trabajo voluntario. Establecemos límites para protegernos a nosotros mismos y a las personas con las que interactuamos. Como empleado o voluntario en el ministerio, tienes un poder inherente y percibido sobre aquellos a quienes sirves. Debido a esta posición de autoridad y poder, la prioridad del empleado y voluntario debe ser el mejor interés de la persona a la que está ministrando. Para obtener más información sobre cómo establecer límites apropiados, lea el artículo de VIRTUS® en inglés, “Ministerial Boundaries, Power and Authority” (“Límites ministeriales, poder y autoridad”) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know/
